RESEARCH READER
The Robert R. Muntz Library Research Month Newsletter

THIS WEEK
April 22 | Workshop: Faculty Resources
April 23 | The Celebration of Scholarship & Creativity
April 24 | Workshop: e-Portfolios: Professionally Presenting Your Research & Creative Works
April 25 | Workshop: "Open" in Education & Research (OERs)
April 26 | Liaison Librarians visit to RBN / RBS

WEEKLY
Research Reader Newsletter - check your email!
Breadcrumbs Hunt & prize - watch for details on social media!

DAILY
Research Tips - Collect one each day; the first 22 people to turn in all 22 tips to the Library on May 1st win a prize!
THE HARDEST PART OF WRITING IS RESTARTING

Written by Rebecca Schuman

This advice column, published in "The Chronicle of Higher Education", will be featured in each Volume of the Research Reader. The author - Rebecca Schuman - offers suggestions on how to write better, develop scholarly habits that will not interfere with life, and set appropriate productivity goals.

This week's column is the fourth of the series, published on February 15, 2018. The column may be accessed with the following link: https://www.chronicle.com/article/The-Hardest-Part-of-Writing-is/245720?cid=wcontentgrid_hp_2

HAVE YOU HEARD?

Muntz Library has a Librarian for every academic subject! Need help with your research? We've got you covered! In fact, give us a few minutes, and we can save you a few hours! To learn who your Liaison Librarian is, simply follow this link: www.uttyle.edu/library/research/liaisons

"Research is a multi-dimensional treasure hunt. Every topic has its own pathways; each resource leading you to the next. The treasure at the end is an exciting new discovery of knowledge.

Vandy Dubre
Arts & Humanities Librarian